Nestled behind a quintessential white picket fence, 40 Fihelly Street stands as a testament to classic charm and modern living. This sweet cottage-like retreat, set amidst a manicured yard, welcomes you with its traditional elegance and contemporary comfort, blending seamlessly. As you step inside, you will notice the hardwood floors and a layout that offers light and space, with each room flowing effortlessly into the next. The kitchen, the heart of the home, has been updated to cater to the needs of modern living while still retaining its quaint charm. The living spaces are bathed in natural light and provide a serene backdrop for daily life. A private back deck allows for entertaining or relaxation, with beautiful treed views to enjoy. Main bedroom with air-conditioning and built-in robes. Second bedroom with cabinetry and built-in desk. Modern kitchen with an abundance of workspace, internal cabinetry lighting and servery to deck. Separate large lounge room. Dining and Living area combined with built-in cupboards. Bespoke cabinetry throughout with highlights of Mango Wood. Covered, private back deck. 2.7m high ceilings. Hardwood timber floors. Beautiful manicured gardens with an accent on privacy. Separate laundry. Water tank. 597m² corner block. While the current footprint provides a cosy and intimate setting, the property also offers scope for extension. Whether you dream of adding more bedrooms or expanding the home, this is a canvas ripe for imagination. If you would like further information, please do not hesitate to contact us or we will see you at the open home.
