Experience prime convenience wrapped in charming vintage allure with this 1950s bungalow-style residence, located on a subdivided strata title block in a highly sought-after area. Merely footsteps away from top educational institutions, expansive parklands, and key transport hubs, this property exudes untapped potential for renovation or the perfect location for your dream home. Step into a world of character as you explore the home's three generous bedrooms and a cosy living room, complete with a fireplace for those winter evenings. The home retains its original Jarrah floorboards and features high ceilings that add to its timeless charm, and the kitchen has an electric stovetop and a traditional wood-burning stove. The amenities include a separate laundry room, separate WC, and a bathroom complete with shower, vanity, and WC. For year-round comfort, ceiling fans are installed in the meals area and main bedroom, with a split-system air conditioner in the living room. Outside, enjoy ample parking space and a generous setback from the verge, an excellent canvas for those with a green thumb. Savvy investors will find it difficult to resist the immense potential this family-friendly locale offers. Strategically positioned for lifestyle convenience, this residence offers easy access to Curtin University, Bentley Technology Park, Millen Primary School, Kent Street Senior High School, and Ursula Frayne Catholic College. For nature lovers, the Kensington Bushland Reserve is a leisurely stroll away. Fulfill all your shopping needs at The Park Centre, featuring Coles and K Mart, and enjoy endless dining options along Albany Highway. City commuters will appreciate the quick 15-minute drive to the CBD or the convenience of nearby Oats Street train station. Act quickly with this home!
