A stroll from ultra-hip Equium Social café, steps from the popular local bowlo, and complete with rear access to a lock-up garage, this renovated Californian Bungalow is a top find in trendy Mayfield East. Brimming with the character and charm of its era yet opened up for modern day living, interiors are a perfect blend of old and new. Wide timber floorboards, picture rails, and high ceilings reveal its heritage while a contemporary kitchen, stylish bathrooms and bi-fold doors leading to a covered alfresco zone give it the look and feel of the 21st century. Highlights keep coming with three large bedrooms, a fireplace in the living room, and versatile studio adjoining the garage. -?Modernly renovated character home set behind a white picket fence -?Open plan kitchen/dining zone plus a generous family living room -?Spacious skylit island kitchen featuring a gas hob, dishwasher, and great storage -?Easy flow between indoors and out makes dining outside a breeze-?Covered alfresco setting steps out to a secure and private backyard -?Three large bedrooms, two with BIR and each beautifully appointed -?Double-sized main bedroom with WIR and modern ensuite -?Stylish main bathroom features a shower over the bath and black tapware -?Split-system air-conditioning in the living room and main bedroom-?Cooling ceiling fans and quality plantation shutters throughout-?Walk to Mayfield's always-expanding CBD, dining options, supermarkets, retail stores and public transport-?10 minutes to Newcastle CBD, surf beaches, buzzing nightlife, and harbourside dining
