Constructed circa 2014 in brick and iron, this beautifully presented residence offers a super relaxed lifestyle for the growing family. Set on a superb 1012sqm (quarter acre) allotment in the heart of the Karragullen Township, its compact yet clever design features accommodation of 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms complimented with free flowing living areas. The lovely alfresco area provides for endless evenings of Summer entertainment whilst the 6m x 6m workshop/ mancave comes complete with vehicle access perfect for the hobbyist or car enthusiast. With the majority of all residences in Karragullen Township constructed circa 1970's, number 40 Rokewood Way presents a very unique opportunity to secure a modern residence.
