

40 Thomson Street, Darlinghurst, NSW 2010

Sold House

Thursday, 7 March 2024

40 Thomson Street, Darlinghurst, NSW 2010

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Type: House

Jason Boon
0283562700

Geoff Cox
0283562700

Contact agent

Nestled in an esteemed Darlinghurst residential enclave, this iconic 3-bedroom home offers a charming retreat of tranquillity, seclusion, and sophistication. Situated in a distinctive cul-de-sac, this end-of-row terrace merges its c1910-built heritage with refined contemporary elements across 3 levels. With uninterrupted vistas of the CBD skyline, it opens to a lower-level living space flowing to a sunny balcony, with a dining room and kitchen leading to a bike storage zone/laundry and access to the rear lane. An exquisite staircase illuminated by stained-glass windows ascends to the mid-level where a gorgeous front bedroom with outstanding terrace with CBD views and further bedroom are located. A massive bathroom is a delightful space, while a rear balcony adds further allure. The pinnacle of the property however is the top level, presenting the outstanding master suite, a serene area with wide showcase terrace embracing those extraordinary views, complemented by walk-through robe and private bathroom. In impeccable condition, with extensive period details, polished floors, original fireplaces, and high ceilings, this home also features access to a unique private laneway, fostering a lovely community vibe. A simply incredible residence, this abode presents a rare chance within walking distance of the best of Sydney, minutes to the CBD, cafes, transport, and shopping. - Iconic c1910 3-bed terrace, beautifully updated- Over 3 levels, CBD views, Harbour Bridge glimpses- Flexible floorplan with a range of layout options- Quiet location, friendly vibe, private lane access- Serene lower living room opens to sunny balcony- Top-level main bed w/ wide sun-bathed terrace- Main bedroom featuring full ensuite, A/C, WIR- Convenient roller-door access for bike storage - Level access to unique rear lane, very peaceful- Stroll to CBD, amenities, cafes, eateries, shopping- Rare chance in sought-after city-side location