Positioned on the city fringe for a dynamic and cosmopolitan inner-urban lifestyle, this superbly appointed, light-filled, one-bedroom apartment is just a short stroll from Lygon St, Princes Park and all the best of Melbourne's public transport including trams, buses and trains, perfect for those looking for a walk or ride everywhere lifestyle. At the doorstep of all that Brunswick has to offer, you can immerse yourself in the area's iconic cafe culture, fine dining and nightlife, whilst also enjoying city-bound transport and vast expanses of highly treasured inner-suburban parkland. The apartment itself is cleverly designed with a full size elegant kitchen complete with stone-topped benches, stainless steel appliances, and abundance of storage, which opens to a cosy living area that opens on to a spacious and weather protected balcony. Relax in the king sized carpeted bedroom with study nook and built-in robes which also opens out to the apartment's balcony. A very vogue bathroom showcases timber-tone tiling, providing a tasteful contrast to the home's pristine white & grey colour palette. Also featuring heating and cooling and storage cage, with an additional 3m x 1m storage cage available to the property. B E also boasts impeccably presented and cared for common areas including a media room, gym and multipurpose room ideal for entertaining. Developed by Element Five in conjunction with Gersch this apartment is one of the first in the block to be offered for re-sale in this very tightly held B.E development.
