Nestled on the 4th floor of Bible house is this beautifully appointed unfurnished studio in Cosmopolitan Flinders Lane . Within the Heritage listed building we have high ceilings, timber floor boards, loads of natural light.The centre piece of the apartment is without doubt the custom made copper shower which is one of kind and positioned perfectly so that it separates the living area from the bedroom. The sparkling modern kitchen offers top of the line appliances with a stainless steel splash back, electric cooking , dishwasher and fridge.There is a powder room with an old French wash basin and toilet. Another feature is the custom made storage and cupboard space which hides away the fold away bed and desk. The washer and dryer too are cleverly tucked in a cupboard with sufficient ventilation.Book a viewing now using this link:
