Live indoors-out up above it all in sun-filled style! Up high in this tightly-held luxury group, this single bedroom home adds al fresco living to apartment life with interior living space almost matched by a deep full-width entertainers' balcony. Scaled up with a large double bedroom behind a slide-away wall and a sizeable private ensuite with frameless-screened shower, this superior apartment showcases this prestige development's signature quality. With a streamlined kitchen featuring prestige stainless-steel appliances (including a dishwasher) and a discreet European laundry fitted with custom cabinetry and full-height tiling, there's high-end designer detail including stone benchtops, vast built-in-robos, ducted climate-control and video-intercom security entry. First-floor above lift-access basement garaging with storage, even the location puts you above all else - with a choice of Southland station or Highett station and restaurant precinct within a walk, Southland's retail therapy with 350m and the wide open spaces of George Fry Reserve almost at the door.
