

41 Ambassador Crescent, Point Cook, Vic 3030

Sold House

Wednesday, 14 February 2024

41 Ambassador Crescent, Point Cook, Vic 3030

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Area: 476 m²

Type: House

Michael She
0398262296

Waller Wang
0398262296

Contact agent

Exceptional Family Home Near Endless Amenities With a long list of exceptional features and a lifestyle location near Point Cook College, Upper Point Cook Bicycle Park, Hopper Crossing Shopping Centre, and the ease of the Princes Freeway, this property has all the makings of a forever family home. Beautifully presented and boasting a family-friendly yet manageable 476sqm (approx.) allotment, it will be effortless to imagine living here. Upon entry, this home evokes a warm and welcoming feel that will inspire you to stay a while. The open concept living area resides at the rear of the residence to afford a seamless connection with the fenced garden. Comprising a stylish kitchen with stone benchtops, gas cooker, and peninsula seating, plus a generous dining area and 2 versatile living spaces lined with quality flooring, you can configure this sun-filled and stylish zone to suit your lifestyle. Ideal for growing families, there are also 2 upper level living areas that open options for a home office, theatre, games room, or potential for an additional bedroom. Spacious and smartly situated bedrooms are also provided. Both levels feature beautiful bedrooms with ensuites, including the expansive upper level main bedroom with luxurious ensuite with dual sinks, soaking tub, rain shower, and separate WC. The further family bedrooms upstairs, adorned with plush carpet and plenty of storage space, share the 3rd designer bathroom. For seasonal comfort, ducted heating and cooling keeps this home temperate year-round. This superb residence is grand in scale to ensure there is plenty of space to grow into. Geared for family living inside and out, this property promises to impress. Plan your viewing today.