

41 Burns Crescent, Chiswick, NSW 2046

elite PARTNERS REAL ESTATE

House For Rent

Friday, 19 April 2024

41 Burns Crescent, Chiswick, NSW 2046

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Antonio Lorenzo
0410648864

$2000.00 pw

This property is like a dream come true for those seeking waterfront living in Chiswick! With its spacious layout, stunning water views, and convenient amenities, it offers an ideal lifestyle for families or those who love to entertain. The three to four generously sized bedrooms on the upper level, complete with just installed floating timber flooring, and freshly painted, provide a comfortable and sunlit retreat. The expansive living room seamlessly connects to a large balcony, offering enviable water views and creating a perfect space for relaxation or social gatherings. The well-appointed refreshed kitchen, with ample bench and storage space, is a hub for culinary creativity, while the period bathroom with a deep bathtub adds a touch of elegance. Outside, the low-maintenance grassy garden with a garden shed provides a private oasis, ideal for kids to play or for hosting gatherings with friends and family. The property also features an internal laundry, additional storage options, and a separate second brand new kitchenette on the ground floor, adding to its practicality and convenience. Moreover, the inclusion of a double undercover car space, 1 lock-up garage, and a large workshop ensures ample parking and storage options for residents. And of course, the private boat ramp with direct harbor access is a standout feature for water enthusiasts. This property is suitable for a large family or with adults kids or parents/in-laws to make use of the downstairs private retreat. With its proximity to shopping villages, public transportation options, parks, schools, and recreational facilities, this property offers both tranquility and convenience. It truly seems like an opportunity not to be missed for those looking to embrace the waterfront lifestyle in Chiswick.