Get set for summer in this elegantly styled boutique townhouse in a fantastic lifestyle spot with the harbour opposite, sand and surf at the end of the street and everything from cafes and restaurants to shopping and transport footsteps from the door. Luxurious throughout its dual-level design, the three-bedroom home adjoins Foreshore Park, has Nobby's Beach, the Cowrie Hole and Newcastle Beach a stroll away, and its interior is nothing short of breathtaking. Schemed with an on-trend colour palette and including designer elements such as a showroom kitchen and bathrooms, a gas-flame fireplace, and north-facing living room windows that forge a close outdoor connection and bring in an off-shore breeze. A deep courtyard with swim-spa adds another level of appeal, as does a secure carpark – a prized asset in this end of town. Opportunities of this nature are often sought, yet rarely found. -?Two-storey townhouse showcasing an up-to-the-minute statement in style -?Bespoke kitchen with deep stone surfaces, brass hardware, and shaker cabinetry -?Sun-splashed living room with architectural finesse, gas fire and split-system AC -?All bedrooms are located upstairs and include a built-in robe and carpet underfoot -?Glamorous bathroom featuring a gorgeous tile selection, heated towel rail, backlit mirror and twin showers -?Handy second bathroom in the downstairs laundry, useful under-stair storage -?Two courtyards provide perfect retreats for outdoor dining or relaxation -?Smack bang in the heart of all the East Ends action, stroll to light rail, shops, cafes, wine bars, and all the buzz of the harbour and city beaches.
