Introducing the delightful residence at 41 Fishermans Drive, offering a blend of simplicity and practicality, perfect for those embarking on homeownership or seeking a savvy investment. Positioned in the serene locale of Blind Bight, this abode is an inviting canvas awaiting your personal touch. As you step through the doors, the home greets you with a fresh coat of paint and newly laid carpets, creating a clean and welcoming atmosphere. The kitchen, equipped with new appliances, provides a functional space ready to handle meal preparations with ease. The living areas, with their unassuming charm, offer flexible spaces for daily activities and easygoing entertaining. With three bedrooms, each offering ample space for rest and rejuvenation, the home caters well to a variety of needs. The master bedroom features an ensuite for added convenience, while the remaining bedrooms share access to a practical central bathroom. The installation of new blinds and selective upgrades to the electrical system, including downlights, new switch board, combine to enhance both the efficiency and comfort of the home. Outside, the covered verandah presents a quiet spot to enjoy the outdoors, overlooking the modest yet inviting landscape. This property doesn't just offer a house, but a potential home that serves as a solid foundation for first-time buyers or a considered option for those looking to invest in a community-oriented area. It's ready for its new owners to enjoy as is, with plenty of scope to add value in the future. Contact Jason or Benn to arrange your very own private inspection
