This three bedroom brick veneer home is in need of a little love and attention. Paint, carpet and new window furnishings and you'd have done wonders. The kitchen has been updated and the bathroom offers a bath and separate shower. All three bedrooms offer robes and the separate living room has gas heating. Situated in a quiet street on approx 806sqm allotment it is close to shops and medical facilities making it an ideal 1st home or investment. There is also a single carport and separate garage / workshop. This is an entry level property that is well worth inspection. Full Building Report Available upon request.
