Comprising of 2 great sized bedrooms, both with built in robes. Large living area located at the front of the property along with a separate dining space which could easily double as a second living room, formal dining room or even a study. The kitchen is also a great size and includes gas and electric cooking, ample cupboard space and direct access to the backyard. This home also has the added bonus of both central heating and cooling throughout the home for year round comfort. Externally you will find a private rear yard which is fully enclosed, along with a large storage shed and enough room to park at least 2 cars off the street. All this located within walking distance to all that Bendigo has to offer. Please note, this property also includes the added bonus of a monthly gardener.
