Lending itself as a superb redevelopment site or renovation project, this family home sits on a level 725sqm approx. rectangular allotment and offers comfort for today with dual living zones and space outdoors for entertaining (STCA). Rendered to convey a stylish aesthetic from the street, the home's internal dimensions are ready to cater for the family with the four bedrooms incorporating a master bedroom with built-in-robe and ensuite. The family bathroom connects through to a 2-way toilet, while the generous laundry is accompanied by a study area with built-in desk and shelving. For relaxed days and evenings at home, the lounge and dining room offer the benefits of polished floorboards and corner windows, with the central kitchen containing an upright oven/gas stove and servery opening through to the family room. Extending out from here, sliding doors open onto a large alfresco zone that continues fluidly out to the generously sized backyard. Further complemented by gas heating, air conditioning, garden shed plus a side driveway leading to the single carport and single garage. Enjoying incredible convenience with easy access to Carrington Primary, Scoresby Secondary, Carrington Park, Scoresby Shopping Village, Westfield Knox Shopping Centre, buses plus EastLink Freeway.
