Auction Guide $1,800,000

With dual street access & Granny Flat potential, situated along a quiet Rockdale street, 41 Oswell Street presents itself as an exciting fusion of the distinguished old and the stylish new. Beyond its pleasant white picket fence and tidy frontage it makes a strong impression with its sweeping ornate ceilings, vibrant timber flooring, and sight lines through to the backyard. The bedrooms boast wall-spanning built-in wardrobes, and the central living area is appointed with a fireplace and display cabinetry. The entire back half of the home has been renovated, including a sleek bathroom with floor-to-ceiling tiling, and impressively open plan kitchen, family and dining areas. Just beyond the kitchen, the private sunken alfresco entertaining area looks out over a large family-ready backyard. This lovely property is located close to Bexley Public School and Banksia Station. • Classically elegant features such as tall ornately decorated ceilings • Renovated to include open plan kitchen, dining and living • Three comfortable bedrooms with wall-spanning wardrobes • Second living-room easily converting to 4th bedroom • Bright and incredibly spacious primary living area, air conditioning • Modern gas kitchen, modern benchtops, gorgeous slow-close cabinetry • Frameless shower with rainfall tapware, twin basin vanity to bathroom • Versatile entertaining area and big backyard with a large storage shed • Drive through access to deep garage, plus additional rear lane access • Close to local parks, Bardwell Valley Golf Club and public transport
