Warm and inviting, with bags of character charm, this rejuvenated mid century cottage will definitely capture your heart! Nestled on a generous 463sqm Green Titled Street Front block in Dianella's exclusive Inglewood Border pocket, you'll need to be quick as homes of this calibre don't last long! Greeted by a lovely deep verandah and lush mature greenery upon arrival, internally you'll discover all the hallmarks of a bygone era, including polished timber floorboards, high ceilings, original timber doors and architraves plus a gorgeous decorative fireplace. Boasting everything one needs for effortless modern living, including a contemporary open plan kitchen and dining space, two separate living areas and up to 4 bedrooms if desired (or 3 plus a study), an updated family bathroom, tranquil outdoor entertaining space plus enclosed lawn area for the kids (human or fur) to play, recent upgrades and a generous free flowing floor plan have ensured this mid century charmer transcends with time. Made perfect by its prime Inglewood border location, with schools, shops, cafes, restaurants, parks, public transport and recreational facilities, including Terry Tyzack Aquatic Centre and the Mount Lawley Golf Course all on your doorstep, this inviting residence offers everything you've dreamed of. Ideal for first home buyers, family upsizers and investors alike, make it yours today!
