SOLD by Jellis Craig. Tucked away behind a timeless stone wall, just moments from schools, public transport, and an array of conveniences including Greensborough Plaza and Bundoora Square, stands this meticulously crafted single-level home. Ideal for both homebuyers seeking immediate occupancy and astute investors eyeing rental potential, this residence has been expertly refreshed to offer three bedrooms and two bathrooms of unparalleled comfort. Polished timber flooring seamlessly complements the home's classic yet contemporary aesthetic, while an abundance of natural light accentuates the impeccable finishes throughout. Each bedroom boasts built-in robes, with the master suite boasting a luxurious en-suite for added indulgence. The state-of-the-art kitchen is equipped with stainless steel appliances, ample bench space, and abundant storage, catering to the demands of modern living. The expansive main living area features a cleverly integrated study nook, perfect for remote work setups. Outside, the generous backyard beckons with its open-air wooden decking, enveloped by lush green lawns—an idyllic setting for entertaining guests or simply unwinding in tranquility. With its flawless presentation and irresistible charm, this property promises to exceed expectations and presents an unmissable opportunity. Don't let this chance slip away—schedule your viewing today!
