Tucked away on the edge of Robertson village awaits this spacious family home. Set high against a backdrop of pockets of lush rainforest and with some views towards the coast, this unique property enjoys absolute privacy with not a neighbour in sight! With so much potential, it's ready to make it your own and would provide the ideal weekender, the rural escape you've been looking for, or simply a place to call home where you can relax, unwind and absorb the surrounding natural beauty. Kiama beach is just half an hour away whilst the neighbouring highlands towns of Bowral and Moss Vale are an easy 25-30 minute drive. You will feel a million miles away from the hustle and bustle of larger towns yet still be within easy reach of all your lifestyle needs. Designed with the large family in mind, this property features: * Family sized home spanned across two levels* Upstairs master retreat with built in robe and large ensuite* Four spacious bedrooms on the lower level, three with robes* Open plan kitchen and dining, large picture windows* North facing living areas with garden vistas* Family bathroom (combined with laundry), separate toilet* Double garage, work sheds, garden shed* Tank water, enviro-cycle waste management system, bore water* 4.5kw solar system feeding to a 12.5kw Tesla battery* Secluded 4047sqm parcel with low maintenance gardens, natural rainforest and bushland
