This apartment introduces a new level of design excellence to the vibrant heart of Hawthorn. The well-appointed kitchen effortlessly combines functionality and style, making it the ideal space for both entertaining friends on weekends and preparing culinary delights throughout the week. Exquisite finishes complimented by ample storage to create a culinary haven. The open-plan living area, flooded with natural light and offering generous proportions, is a haven for hosting gatherings. Enhancing the experience further, the spacious terrace seamlessly connects indoor and outdoor living, creating a harmonious environment for relaxation and entertainment. Step into the bathroom and be greeted by a serene oasis of raw, natural finishes in gentle hues. This tranquil palette, complemented by abundant storage solutions, ensures a clutter-free space where every toiletry has its dedicated spot, leaving room to spare. Emphasizing sustainability, the building has been thoughtfully designed to promote eco-conscious living. Incorporating features such as rainwater tanks, natural ventilation systems, and low-emission finishes.
