This two-bedroom brick home presents a rare opportunity to own a slice of countryside paradise. Located at 418 Ellendale Road, this property is set on a sprawling just under 6 acres of lush pasture, offering both tranquility and breathtaking scenic views. The home itself has been fully renovated. Step inside to discover an open plan living space that invites warmth and light, creating an inviting atmosphere that feels like home the moment you walk in. Outside, the property doesn't disappoint, featuring a two-bay garage and a handy garden shed to cater to all your storage and hobby needs. The yard around the home is fully secure, making it an ideal setting for families looking for safety and privacy. Beyond the home garden, a fully fenced paddock awaits, perfect for those with equestrian interests or looking to keep livestock. Adding to the allure of this property is a dam, providing a water source for the land and potential for recreational activities. This property is more than just a home; it's a lifestyle choice for those yearning for the peace and beauty of the countryside, without sacrificing modern conveniences. Whether you're dreaming of a rural retreat or looking to embark on a hobby farm adventure, 418 Ellendale Road in Fentonbury offers the perfect backdrop. Don't miss out on the chance to make this dream home your reality.
