A prestigious location within one of Sydney's most tightly-held suburbs. Secluded from the street, this full double-brick home is among Tennyson Point's select few positioned right on Morrison Bay Park - even more rare, it enjoys direct access to both park and bay foreshores with paradise views of both. The private home is offered for the first time by the original owner. It features a masterful open design on two light-filled levels, accentuated by soaring ceilings and double storey glass enhancing the sense of space and showcasing the rare combination views. A sanctuary for the growing family, it delivers the ultimate indoor/outdoor lifestyle in a tightly-held setting within minutes of Putney and Gladesville villages, fine schools, sport, Kissing Point Ferry Wharf and bus routes.
