Guaranteed to capture your attention, this meticulously maintained brick veneer masterpiece radiates captivating street appeal. Whether you're a first-time homebuyer, a savvy investor, or a visionary builder/developer, this property holds endless potential to suit your aspirations. With three bedrooms, a spacious formal lounge, and a double steel garage complemented by a family-friendly backyard, Homes with retractable or collapsible attic stairs are the ideal way to access this space. They're flexible and space-saving, and the ability to fold them away means that they are only visible when you need to use them. This home is a true gem you can't afford to miss. Not to mention, our prime Hadfield location places convenience at your doorstep, with bus services, local shops, schools, and parklands within easy reach.
