Believed to have been originally built in the late 1800s, with an extension added in 1959, this delightful cottage offers classic charm. Featuring ample living space, the home retains many original features, such as a mantelpiece, high ceilings, and sash windows. Upon entering, a formal entrance leads to the spacious master bedroom on the right and the second bedroom on the left. The centrally located dining area is adjacent to a comfortable separate living room. Upstairs, two additional bedrooms await, perfect for children or as a home office if you only need three bedrooms. Downstairs, the kitchen opens onto an undercover entertainment area, ideal for barbecues. There's also a separate bathroom and amenities. Outside, enjoy established fruit trees, a private backyard, and a lock-up garage. Conveniently situated just a short stroll from schools and major services, this home offers both character and practicality. For further details, please contact me.
