Nestled within the tranquil charm of Russell Island's northern region, this vacant block of land presents an enticing opportunity for investors or those seeking to build their dream island home. With a generous size of 574 square meters, this parcel of land offers ample space for various residential development ventures. Strategically positioned with convenient access to the public ferry terminal, commuting to and from the mainland is effortless, making this location ideal for those seeking both tranquillity and accessibility. Residents will appreciate the ease of travel, allowing for seamless integration between island living and mainland amenities. Situated on a sealed road, this property ensures year-round accessibility, further enhancing its appeal for potential development projects. Additionally, the provision of power and water access to the street simplifies the construction process, providing a solid foundation for future endeavours. Whether you envision crafting your own island retreat or seizing upon the investment potential of this burgeoning locale, this vacant block of land offers a myriad of possibilities. Don't miss out on this chance to secure your slice of paradise on Russell Island's northern shores. Enquire today to embark on your journey towards realizing your island dreams.
