Property like this do not come along very often. The Church building (originally named St. Finn Barr's Basilica) is situated in the heart of Strahan on approximately 1 Acre (0.4047 Ha) of land. The property is tucked away in a very private location, surrounded by gums, ferns, birds, and old-world plants. The property, built in 1900 and once owned by The Roman Catholic Church has been privately owned since 2005. Imagine this beautiful property as your home, or overnight accommodation (STCA) or a family get away - the possibilities are endless.
