Generously enhanced for modern living with class and period appeal. This 1950's home is centrally situated and a spacious haven in a prime location. Introduced by a welcoming façade and rolled veranda the entry flows down a wide hallway into the refurbished roomy lounge, connected to the open plan kitchen and dining, set on beautiful floorboards these living quarters ooze contemporary charm. Accommodation consists of three bedrooms with high ceilings serviced by a beautifully renovated family bathroom featuring a large walk in shower and double vanity. Outside is sprawling and presents an exciting opportunity for the astute purchaser with development potential (STCA). There is a covered entertainment area perfect for those warm Summer BBQ's, a large backyard with lawns, vegetable garden and fruit trees. Car accommodation is certainly met with a large carport and garage. Mere footsteps to specialty shops, cafes, schools and services. Welcome Home to 42 Montagu Street, New Norfolk. Charming 1950's home Updated kitchen and bathroom Plantation shutters, ceiling rose and ornate fireplace Energy efficient with solar panels in place Large block, development potential (STCA) Huge carport and garage Footsteps from the New Norfolk town centre, Esplanade and parks
