

42 Roderick Street, Maclean, NSW 2463

Sold House

Thursday, 21 December 2023

42 Roderick Street, Maclean, NSW 2463

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Area: 814 m2

Type: House

Scott Johnson
0484852222

Contact agent

This cherished family home has loads of potential & many features to admire, particularly the raked timber ceilings & timber panelling that add a touch of difference & warmth. You will not be disappointed with the view that comes with this elevated flood free position. Imagine entertaining on the outdoor deck while enjoying views down to The Mighty Clarence River. Reverse cycle air conditioning means comfort all year round & for those really hot days, there's always the pool! Add the above ground spa & you have endless opportunities for relaxation & recreation. 42 Roderick Street is not short on space. With 5 bedrooms & 3 bathrooms, there's room for everyone. The 5th bedroom downstairs has its own separate toilet and shower and could easily be utilised as a games room or transformed into guest accommodation. Additionally, there's a space off the main downstairs room that could be used as a study or home office. This property is positioned on a quiet no through road and set on 814 sqm. The property has a double bay carport, conveniently attached to the house and the rear yard is a blank canvas for you to create your own personal poolside escape. With a little bit of additional work, this home could be transformed into a true masterpiece. The owner is a keen seller and will consider all genuine offers. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make this house your dream home. Contact Scott on 0484 852 222 to schedule a viewing today.