Spacious home in sought after Sunset Beach. Located close to the ocean, local parks, shops and school. The double garage is accessed from the brick paved drive and a path leads past the front garden to the entrance. The use of the same flooring throughout the passageway, kitchen, and open plan living adds to flowing feel of the home. The master bedroom is to the front of the home and features two walk in robes and an ensuite bathroom and toilet. A separate lounge is located near the entrance. The kitchen has abundant bench and cupboard space and a wide breakfast separates it from the dining and family areas. The patio is accessed from the living area and is in a protected position overlooking the rear yard. The corner lot ensures the occupants privacy and the property overlooks bushland to the North. The main bathroom is convenient to all the minor bedrooms that all have built in robes. The home has airconditioning and reticulation to gardens installed.
