

42 Tasman Road, Gisborne, Vic 3437

Sold House

Tuesday, 27 February 2024

42 Tasman Road, Gisborne, Vic 3437

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Area: 885 m2

Type: House

Kirrily Evans

0491181511

$865,000

If you've been dreaming of finding a fresh new start or low-maintenance, high-appeal change, then let this absolute stunner be the end of your painstaking search. Superbly positioned in an ever-popular family-wise pocket of Gisborne, this three-bedroom, two-bathroom home delivers that ultimate package for those seeking lifestyle excellence. Featuring a purpose-built footprint designed for effortless, everyday entertaining, this home invites the resident chef to engage in conversation while wining and dining with friends in the open-plan living/dining domain. The designer kitchen boasts a dishwasher, freestanding electric oven with gas cook top, and an island bench that creates a social atmosphere, with seamless alfresco flow to the all-weather outdoor living zone, where you'll discover an undeniable daily bliss of play and entertainment. The kids and pets will love the lawned open spaces, while parents will love the landscaped setting and simply soak up the serenity on the deck. With a functional floorplan, an ensuite and walk-in robe compliment the private main bedroom, while two additional spacious bedrooms feature built-in robes, served by a central main bathroom, a separate WC, and a large laundry. Enjoy all the style of sleek modern living, with features such as a formal lounge, gas ducted heating and evaporative air-conditioning for year-round comfort, abundant storage, double garage and gated side access leading to the 9m x 7m shed/workshop offering space for a caravan, trailer or even a small truck. Convenience is key here, with parks, schools and ovals a short walk from your front door, including Willowbank Primary School, while a quick drive to the town centre provides shopping, cafes and dining options at your fingertips.