A family home of strikingly individual style, complemented by an impressive emphasis on quality, this dynamic dual level residence's indoor and alfresco combination is exceptional! Luxurious living areas, four inviting bedrooms and a study are intelligently arranged over the upstairs and downstairs dimensions. The design features two fresh, fabulously appointed bathrooms with under floor heating, reverse cycle air conditioning throughout and smart home electrics along with a contemporary kitchen that meets every need with accomplished ease. An elegantly landscaped backdrop with fully automated sprinkler, integrated barbeque bench and a beautifully built pizza oven provides a perfect entertaining accompaniment to an address that's desirably close to Nelson Place, Williamstown Beach, the train station and in the catchment of sort-after Victorian schools.
