This family home (around 850 sqm) features a classic Art Deco facade and interior period details such as decorative ceilings, leadlight cut glass, and polished timber floors. It comprises a formal sitting room, adjoining dining area, four zoned bedrooms or three plus a study, two bathrooms, and one with laundry. Additionally, there's a central kitchen/meals area overlooking a spacious family room that leads to a deep rear garden. Other amenities include ducted heating, open fireplace, a reverse cycle air conditioner (in the family room), and a garden shed. Situated in a sought-after family-friendly location near Through Road Reserve, Highfield or Lynden Parks, public transport options, and a range of private and public schools including Camberwell High zoning. It's also within walking distance to the highly regarded Hartwell Primary and various shopping options, including the popular Leo's Fine Food Supermarket.
