Perfectly positioned just a short stroll from Chapel Street, Albert Park Lake and St Kilda Beach, this impeccable, recently updated residence combines stylish and spacious living and entertaining spaces with an effortless, inner-city lifestyle. Benefitting from coveted off-street parking, the superbly presented home welcomes with an elegant, light-filled living and dining room that flows through to the kitchen and family area with bifold doors opening on to a lush, private courtyard garden, perfect for alfresco entertaining. The chic kitchen pairs stainless steel appliances with appealing feature tiling, stone benchtops and extensive cabinetry including two large pull-out pantry cupboards. Upstairs, three bedrooms include the tranquil master which is set at the rear and features a walk-through mirrored robe and a pristine ensuite with an oversized vanity, mirrored cabinet and double walk-in shower. Two further bedrooms with built-in robes share the sparkling family bathroom with bath while a large, central rumpus area or study adds extra space for a family to spread out. Other features of this well-designed, inner-city oasis include a ground-floor powder room, walk-in laundry, ducted heating and cooling, plantation shutters, attractive wooden flooring, roof storage and courtyard bench seating with storage. Situated in a fabulously convenient lifestyle position, just minutes to Windsor station, trams, Prahran Market, Greville Street, Fawkner Park and with easy access to excellent schools including Prahran High School, St Michael's Grammar and Wesley College.
