This pristine property boasts five well-appointed bedrooms complemented by two bathrooms, offering ample room for a growing family. The expansive 1041 sqm plot ensures a sense of freedom and privacy, while the generous 243.81m² of living space within the main house is complemented by an additional rear building featuring a bedroom, a vast rumpus room, and a storage/tool room - perfect for versatile family living. The residence is finished to a high standard, including a large Stone two-pack kitchen with Neff appliances, hydronic heating, an evap cooler, a split system in the rear activity room, and double-glazed windows for year-round comfort. The water supply to the property is filtered, ensuring peace of mind. Entertaining is a breeze with the large undercover area, while the sizable flat driveway and internal garage, totalling 66.90m², provide ample parking with additional space for boats, trailers, or caravans. The unique charm of the property is enhanced by a bricked-in wood fireplace, utilising original red bricks from the house that once stood here. Situated close to the centre of Albury, parks, skate parks, schools, and bike tracks, this stunning home promises a lifestyle of convenience and luxury for the discerning family.
