Situated in a quiet street in the lovely community of North Lakes, this home is just perfect for you! The home features four good sized bedrooms, master with ensuite and walk-in wardrobe. Meal times will be a breeze in the galley style kitchen complete with stone benchtops, stainless steel appliances and gas cooking. Whether you enjoy the indoors or outdoors the separate living/dining areas and undercover patio will be sure to do the job. The home is situated on a fully fenced and landscaped 336m² block. All of this and more within walking distance to shops, schools, medical facilities and public transport so be quick to ensure you don't miss out on this great opportunity. http://www.qgso.qld.gov.au/maps/edmap/North Lakes is a suburb of the Moreton Bay Region, Queensland, Australia.[2] North Lakes is located approximately 26 km north of the Brisbane central business district. At the 2016 Australian Census the suburb recorded a population of 21,671. The suburb includes parklands, schools and shops and currently houses 17,000 people, with 25,000 projected by the end of the development. There are also many new facilities in the area, including the North Lakes Community Centre, Interchange, industrial estate, and Westfield North Lakes.

Major tenants of the shopping centre include Target, Coles, Big W, Woolworths, Myer, Kmart and other major franchises and boutique stores. A cinema complex opened in mid 2016. A 28,000sq m IKEA superstore (the second in Queensland) officially opened on November 17, 2016 as part of Westfield's stage three development. North Lakes is also the site of Queensland's first Costco. The Moreton Bay Regional Council operates a public library at 10 The Corso
