Passion and personality flourish in this creatively reimagined Victorian terrace in a tucked-away pocket of Paddington behind the buzz of Oxford Street and RHW Park. Freestanding to one side, the two-storey home is infused in light and air with feel-good interiors and a landscaped backyard that's designed as a tranquil escape from the fast pace of city living. A keen eye for colour and artisan finishes deliver a contemporary twist on Victoriana that's in tune with its village setting with The Intersection's high-end fashion hub at the end of the street and cafes all around. Perfect for the urbanite who desires a sense of sanctuary, the two-bedroom home offers superb walkability just 450m to Five Ways' social scene with everything from cocktail bars and Pilates studios to top-notch restaurants and arthouse cinemas footsteps from the door.
