What a location! In less than one minute from this property you can either be on the shore of beautiful Hellyer Beach or the sheltered tidal estuary of Detention River - both areas offering peaceful places to swim, fish or walk on a long unpopulated sandy beach. This beautifully presented home offers very comfortable living and a great seaside lifestyle. Step inside, this quality home has many features such as a well appointed granite topped kitchen, spacious living area with cosy wood heating or a/c and 3 generous bedrooms all with built in cupboards. There's a stylish new bathroom, and all the windows have recently been replaced and a warm dry air system installed ensuring heat retention. A covered BBQ area is perfect for the entertainer, as is the second living area or rumpus - ideal for the kids and their friends. At the rear of the home is a well fenced backyard, dog yard, plenty of space for vegetable gardens and ample water supply from large tank and sand spear. Single garage and carport completes this great property. If it's the seaside lifestyle you're after, you can't go past this lovely home at Hellyer beach.
