

43 Lucas Street, Kingston, Tas 7050

eis property

Sold House

Sunday, 22 October 2023

43 Lucas Street, Kingston, Tas 7050

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 642 m2

Type: House

Leonie Nyhouse
0417530229

Contact agent

A great alternative to building a new home with inspiring mountain views and a seamless indoor/outdoor flow combine for a sensational lifestyle in this stunning residence. Situated in a quiet location with wonderful views of Mount Wellington, over Kingston and enjoying all day sun, this quality, expansive and versatile home is perfect for a busy family or active retired couple. Conveniently located only moments from all the amenities you could ever wish for. The spacious floor plan is all on one level, including the double garage with internal access, making this an easy, comfortable home to live in. As you enter through the front door the study is conveniently located to the right, a perfect quiet space if you are working from home, this leads to a large living, dining, kitchen and family area with a separate large media room. There are large sliding doors opening onto an expansive deck, offering a great indoor/outdoor lifestyle for entertaining, an area close by where the children can play or just take the time to sit and take in the view. The attractive kitchen is well designed in the heart of the home with ample storage, Smeg appliances and stone bench tops and is perfectly positioned to take in the view and look out to the deck area. This well-designed residence also includes ducted gas heating and plenty of extra cupboard space throughout. There are four bedrooms with built in wardrobes plus a study, two bedrooms are situated in a separate hallway along with the bathroom and separate laundry. The master bedroom suite is privately tucked away and takes in the fabulous view and includes a luxurious ensuite with a spa bath, separate shower, a dual stone-topped vanity and a large walk-in wardrobe. This property will appeal to many buyers whether it is for a busy family who require space and a convenient location or for those who still want a spacious home but prefer a low maintenance property with an easy-care garden to lock, leave and travel. There are few properties that offer the generous size, the ease of living on one level while still enjoying outstanding views. This immaculately presented property is sure to impress. There is also the unique opportunity to purchase the adjoining property, 41 Lucas St. These properties are on separate titles currently adhered. Please contact the agent for further details.

<https://www.realestate.com.au/property-residential+land-tas-kingston-203527928>