This charming three-bedroom, one-bathroom character home on a lovely tree lined street, is situated just moments away from Devonport Town Centre and a short 8-minute drive from Devonport Airport. Notably, it's also where the Spirit of Tasmania Docks, offering incredible accessibility. East Devonport is a treasure trove of amenities waiting to be explored. From schools to parks, a scenic waterfront walking track, local supermarkets, cozy cafes, and more, this suburb surprises many with its abundant offerings. The progressive community spirit sets the stage for vast potential in growth and development. Step into this delightful weatherboard house brimming with character. Move right in and add your personal touch to elevate its inherent charm. The original retro kitchen boasts electric cooking and a spacious pantry, retaining its nostalgic appeal. Feel the warmth in the inviting lounge, complete with a new wood heater. Among the three bedrooms, two feature new carpets and ample natural light pouring through large windows. The third bedroom, currently utilized as a dining room, can effortlessly transform back into a bedroom based on your preferences. A sunroom at the rear entrance extends the home's welcoming ambiance, serving as an additional rumpus area. Step into the little flat garden hideaway at the backyard—a peaceful retreat perfect for relaxation. This property doesn't just stop at comfort; it includes practical spaces too. A work shed in the backyard and a convenient single car garage on the side cater to your storage and functional needs. This residence offers not just a home but a canvas for your dreams in the heart of East Devonport. Move in, personalize, and bask in the potential this progressive suburb holds. Don't miss the chance to own a slice of East Devonport's allure! Contact us today for further details or to schedule a viewing.
