Overflowing in warmth and hospitality, this classic cottage brings endearing comfort with the everlasting charm and character of yesteryear. Positioned on the doorstep of the Brisbane CBD and enjoying a vibrant location in the heart of café and lifestyle precincts, this is a home of peace, enjoyment and privacy. Enticing with a classic street presence, there is excellent comfort and easy-living appeal whilst maintaining the character of its era; original timber floors, stained glass windows, VJ walls and detailed architraves invite warmth and sophistication enhanced with a timeless palette. Light-filled and air-conditioned, a fluid layout welcomes casual relaxation and togetherness within a spacious lounge and dining with welcoming front veranda extending the home's living space, enjoying all-weather use courtesy of louvre windows. Boasting great provision, the kitchen merges every day demands whilst integrating into the character of the home; white cabinets providing superb storage with terrific bench space. A large covered patio beckons you outdoors, framed by established greenery and providing perfect flow into the fenced backyard. Private and tranquil, there is an abundance of space to enjoy entertaining or relaxation alfresco style. Two bedrooms provide private retreat; high ceilings and crisp palette amplifying the feeling of space. The bathroom is beautifully styled in perfect keeping with the character of the home, including timber vanity and sumptuous clawfoot tub. Fully furnished, pet friendly and including solar electricity, this residence is in immaculate condition and ready to welcome you now. - Character cottage with charming features and hardwood timber floors throughout - Spacious lounge and dining with reverse cycle air-conditioning - Quaint front veranda with louvre windows for all-weather use - Generously sized kitchen with great storage - Large, covered private alfresco with established greenery - Two bedrooms with VJ walls and high ceilings - Character bathroom with timber vanity and clawfoot bath - Solar/pet friendly/fully furnished - Walk to bus, shops, dining, boutiques Nestled in the perfect locale, you get all the benefits of leafy suburbia with a location that allows enviable proximity to everything!
