Living on the edge of the Swan Valley has never been more appealing than with this three-bedroom, two-bathroom home. Built in 2021, you will enjoy this stylish property from day one as you don't need to lift a finger. A gourmet kitchen beckons your loved ones to mill around the spacious open-plan living and dining, which flows outside to a paved patio overlooking the big backyard perfect for kids and pets to play freely. The generous primary bedroom overlooks the garden through large windows, flooding this room with natural light. With one of the bedrooms positioned at the front of the home and overlooking the street, you have ideal working-from-home conditions. With modern finishes throughout, the clean and crisp décor with large form tiles in the living areas will most likely suit your furnishings. This low-maintenance property is a wonderful option for families, downsizers and professionals. Situated on an easy-care block, walk the kids to school at Emmaus Catholic Primary School or Dayton Primary School, and you're only a short distance from Caversham Primary School. You have many nearby amenities such as Caversham Village Shopping Centre, Altone Park Shopping Centre and Altone Park Golf Course. Glorious Whiteman Park and the Swan Valley are only a few minutes away, teeming with tourist attractions, fresh produce, wineries, breweries, distilleries, galleries and restaurants. With easy access to a new train station soon to open and arterial roads such as Reid Highway and Tonkin Highway, you can be at the Perth Airport, historic Guildford or Midland town centre within moments. Homes at this price point are usually snapped up, so don't wait a moment longer to contact Joe Da Mata at joe@xceedre.com.au or 0406 237 964 to arrange a viewing today.
