Lifestyle; 43 Skyline Circuit offers any family, first home buyer or downsizer, to enjoy the lush green surrounds and open land spaces of Bahrs Scrub, Windaroo and Belivah without sacrificing on the essentials and daily needs, often associated with this lifestyle. Here is your opportunity to secure a fantastic home in an already well established living hub. Close by to the river, Bannockburn Shopping centre and only minutes from Beenleigh and the Pacific Motorway, this home is one of living away from hustle and bustle, while remaining convenient.

Accommodation; There are four bedrooms across the single storey, brick home, all with built-in wardrobes and ceiling fans. The master bedroom enjoys a walk-in wardrobe and ensuite. Via the front door, passing the two front rooms, it opens up into the large family and dining areas. Open and large, these spaces are conjoined to the kitchen via the breakfast bar which forms the peninsula kitchen. The space is aimed at integrated family time and enjoying cooking, eating and entertaining with everyone involved. The main bathroom, offers a walk-in shower and separate bathtub. Continuing from here, we have a separate laundry room with external access and internal double garage access.

While the home is fantastic throughout, updated and very well kept, the outdoor entertainment area (which has an extension from the original design and builder) is an ideal space to spend time with family and friends. This will definitely become your main living space. The yard is immaculate and includes great garden areas to continue to expand as well as a private, wrap around backyard leading to the side and rear access for a third car, boat or caravan. The home is move in or investor ready, for you to take opportunity of the rapidly growing area as South East Queensland continues to grow and develop.

43 Skyline Circuit offers you the chance to secure a piece of it before it's gone.
