STCA Canowindra is known as the hot air balloon capital of Australia - more flights are said to take place here annually than anywhere else in the country - the historic village of Canowindra is home to airborne adventures, acclaimed vineyards, fascinating colonial history and a unique collection of prehistoric fossils. Located near the charming country towns of Orange and Cowra, linger longer in this Country NSW region to truly get away from it all. 43 Waddell Street, Canowindra is currently rented to Professionals with Options to also do Short term Stays.
