Set a stroll from the bustling heart of Bexley, this charming bungalow is brimming with unique character, showcasing newly refreshed interiors ready for modern family living. The home is adorned with stunning heritage features, including soaring ornate ceilings with a unique intricate pattern in every room, two original fireplaces and quality timber floorboards. It enjoys a prized north east to rear aspect, awash with streams of all-day natural sunlight, boasting spacious alfresco settings conducive to vibrant outdoor entertaining. Ready to move straight in and enjoy, or awaiting a creative transformation or personalisation, this home presents a fantastic opportunity to capitalise on a central address (STCA). The property is set steps from Donnans Reserve and moments from Rockdale Station and a selection of shops, cafés and supermarkets. • Effortless flow between sunlit living/dining zones, original fireplaces • Covered alfresco entertaining area peacefully embraced by easycare lawn • Separate updated kitchen boasts gas cooktop, stainless steel appliances • Mirrored built-in wardrobes to two bedrooms, adjoining sunroom to one • Fully tiled bathroom with shower over bath, freshly painted interiors • Enhanced by splashes of colour through original leadlight windows • Garden shed storage or possible workshop, two car off street parking • 10 minute drive to Brighton Le Sands Beach, Hurstville shopping precinct • Stroll to buses to Banksia Station, Bexley Public School catchment area
