Experience the next level of living in this thoughtfully designed modern apartment – unparalleled style, comfort and convenience, all in one place! Nestled in the prestigious Drift Apartment complex in exclusive Palm Cove, this stunning two-bedroom haven presents a self-contained oasis, boasting full kitchen and laundry facilities. The large primary bedroom with an ensuite is one to impress, along with the bonus of additional guest accommodation that features sliding partitions that can be closed for privacy. The open-concept living This is a point of difference in our unit. The second bedroom - currently in use as an office, in a work from home situation, is permanently closed from the main bedroom. There are open wardrobes available however should you wish to use this space as a second bedroom for guests or family - along with a magical view of the trees and pool. You will fall head over heels for outdoor living, thanks to the property's established tropical gardens and the balcony that opens to a breathtaking vista overlooking the lagoon pool. This dream apartment is finished to a remarkable standard and promises not just a residence you will love coming home to but a luxurious holiday lifestyle you can experience every day.
