Located in the heart of Melbourne's CBD, this home is nestled in the quiet and cosy Rose Lane, offering a tranquil atmosphere away from the hustle and bustle of the environment. The home boasts spacious luxury and style, providing a peaceful sanctuary in a vibrant environment. Enjoy endless restaurants, cafes and bars on your doorstep, as well as a myriad of amenities including Flagstaff Gardens, Queen Victoria Market, Comic Relief Stadium, universities and transport. Walking distance to Southern Cross train station, Bourke Street shopping centre, the Yarra River and Crown Casino entertainment centre. The living room has chic oak flooring and opens onto a sheltered balcony that doubles as an alfresco retreat, providing privacy and full access to spectacular city views. The sleek contemporary kitchen with glossy stone worktops and a gleaming glass splashback caters for all occasions in style, offering the home chef a full range of quality appliances including a built-in microwave. Both bedrooms feature built-in robes, two luxury bathrooms and European-style laundry. With split system air-conditioning and secure underground parking, this luxury flat comes with a range of resident facilities including a swimming pool and spa, steam room, gym, communal lounge and restaurant and podium gardens with terraces. Barbecue facilities. Now on offer is a two-bedroom apartment on 43th-floor. The two bedrooms are not connected and have good privacy. Contact or email us now to get more property details!
