This investment property has great potential for transformation into a splendid family home with a little effort. Situated on a well-maintained 607m<sup>2</sup> block, the home was designed for family living and relaxed entertainment, maximizing both downstairs and upstairs levels. Additionally, two covered decking and patio area offer beautiful views of the crystal-clear inground salt pool. With sought-after amenities such as timber flooring, multiple living and dining areas, a spacious central kitchen, generous sized bedrooms, and ample space throughout, this property presents an excellent opportunity. With the added bonus of a secure downstairs workshop and a lock-up garage, your investment of effort and expertise will be well rewarded.
