Looking out over the tranquil waters surrounding Bruny Island this beautiful historical home offers space and privacy whilst not being too isolated from all the local amenities. With high ceilings, open fire places, enormous rooms and a large entrance and hallway this farm house with yesteryear charm is sure to please the growing family or couples working from home. A large verandah affords beautiful water views and beyond. The property is very private and close to the village of Alonnah where there is a school, shop and cafe, post office pub and more. Available now.
