This stunning home is situated on a large block at an altitude ready to provide it's owner the full four season experience! Magnificent large windows and the house positioning captures majestic views over the surrounding landscape and valley. Or take in the serenity from your private, large outdoor deck and entertaining space. There are established gardens that offer walking tracks to experience throughout a large portion of this land providing a unique, enjoyable and relaxing experience. A shipping container has been strategically installed away from the home ready for the new owner to fit out and utilise as an art room or whatever your imagination may desire. Plentiful off street parking and a double garage/shed are located upon entry to the property. Inside features beautiful polished floor boards, large windows capturing the view, a freestanding fire place and a large open plan living and dining space. The kitchen is modern and sure to please. The master bedroom is a generous size and offers large built in wardrobes. A queen bed would also be no problems for the second bedroom and within the open plan lounge dining there is also space for a home office.
