Very seldom does a property of this calibre come onto the rental market, offering two full sized bedrooms and a space off the kitchen that could act as a study nook. The kitchen is built to entertain, with a long bench top that also serves as a breakfast bar, Bosch stainless steel appliances including dishwasher and oven. Leading off the kitchen is a huge living and dining space, that sits on a floating timber floor finish and spills out into a wonderful oversized private courtyard that is fully paved and landscaped with raised garden beds. This outdoor area is perfect for entertaining and is drenched in sunlight year round.
